EXCURSION TRAIN HAD AN ACCIDENT

An excursion train of nine coaches left Gainesville for Ocala this morning, bringing over 500 people anxious to see the crack teams of the two cities play ball.

A little this side of Kendrick, luckily while the train was running slowly, four cars left the track. All the cars were turned over on their sides and one was badly smashed.

It seems almost a miracle that a number were not killed, but only four were injured enough to note. They were:

Oscar Kinnebrew, leg badly crushed. Ed Smith, arm broken.

Thornton Stringfellow, considerably bruised, but not disabled.

A little girl, daughter of Mrs. Kinnebrew, cut with broken glass.

The engine, baggage car and five coaches with all the people they would hold came on to Ocala. The members of the Gainesville ball team stayed by the wreck. Manager Ed Bennett of the Ocala team secured autos and brought them in.

The other passengers were brought to town by the remaining cars of their own train, which backed up after them.

The accident took place at the switch just this side of Kendrick. The train was running slowly, or it is almost sure that many would have been killed or wounded. The track was considerably torn up, but will be repaired in time to let the afternoon trains pass.

AT THE AIR DOME

The vaudeville at the Air Dome took well last night. There was a large crowd, and it was well pleased. Mr. Bernard is certainly an artist in his line. His jokes caused the greatest amusement and his dancing alone was worth paying the price to see.

The Air Dome always has good pictures, but those last night were particularly fine. There were two historical sketches, a gipsy story and illustrations of Hungary. The pleasure of the evening was much added to by the skillful performance of Miss Annie Laurie Perry at the piano.

MAYOR'S MATINEE

Mayor Robertson held a full hand this morning—four, and one to draw to. They acted up as follows:

William Kauffman, disorderly; $5 or ten days.

Ida Galliray, disorderly; $5 or ten days.

Jeff Davis, d and d; $5 or ten days.

Charles McMartin, drunk; $3 or ten days.

William Barfield, drunk; forfeited a $10 bond.

Mr. Roy Geiger, a son of the late lamented Dr. L. G. Geiger, who recently graduated with honors from Wake Forest College (N. C.) is in town representing Columbia College, in which institution he will occupy the chair of English during the coming session.

Mr. Geiger is a young man of pleasing address, cultured and agreeable. He is here soliciting students for Columbia and we wish him great success. Dr. S. H. Blitch, who had a daughter and son in this institution last year, gives it his unequivocal endorsement.

Two stalks of corn, each ten feet high, and carrying two heavy ears to the stalk, are on exhibition at the Commercial Bank. They were grown by L. B. Griggs on pine land near Lake Juniper. Some stalks averaging four ears each have been sent in from the same section. Dr. Boomer's exhibits are very helpful to the farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meadows and children and Mr. J. C. Baskin of Anthony, are spending today with Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Knight.

Mr. J. R. Moorhead came up today from Shell Island, at the mouth of Crystal River, where his family is spending the summer. He will return tomorrow.

Mr. B. R. Chambers, the Orange Lake merchant, was in town today, having returned from Lady Lake, where he went to take Mrs. Chambers to visit her people for a few days.

Mr. Goodwin of Standard, the naval stores operator, who has been in North Carolina for the past four months, returned home yesterday. Mr. Goodwin was formerly with the Martel Lumber Co. and has many friends in Ocala.

Col. and Mrs. Felder Lang, of Miami, who have been visiting their son, Mr. Louis Lang in this city for the past few weeks, went to Hatch Bend today, to visit relatives.

Master Bartley Corley, accompanied by his aunt, Miss A. E. Williams, of Gainesville, is in the city on a visit to his father, Mr. Bartley Corley, of the Star force.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church was entertained by Mrs. W. H. Coleman with a lawn social yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6:30. Ice cream and cake were served, and children's games were indulged in. Mrs. Coleman was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Freymouth.

Miss Grace Glover and her brother Dudley were among the excursionists from Gainesville today. Miss Glover was next to the little girl who was hurt, and her dress was spattered with blood from the child's wounds.

Mr. John T. Lewis, who has remained with his wounded son at the hospital, the last two weeks, expects to get out on an inspection trip in a day or two. The boy is getting along very well.

J. C. Geiger, while going out home on a bicycle Saturday night, tried to run over an automobile, in proof of which he is carrying a barked nose.

Sunny Jim Robinson, of Hub Shoe and special train fame, is in town visiting his family, and dodging the "Ocala editor."

Direct Answers.

The negroes of Africa are simple and direct in speech. It never occurs to them, writes Mr. R. H. Milligan in "The Jungle Folk in Africa," that the purpose of language is to conceal thought, and to commiserate the African for his color is a waste of sympathy. In illustration of this Mr. Milligan gives an amusing conversation with one of his pupils. One day when I was talking to Bojedi something in the course of the conversation prompted me to ask him whether he would like to be a white man. He replied respectfully but emphatically in the negative. I wished to know his reason. He hesitated to tell me, but I was insistent, and at last he replied: "Well, we think that we are better looking."

I gaped when I thought of the vastly ill looking faces I had seen in the jungles, and in apology for myself I said: "But you have not seen us in our own country, where there is no malaria and where we are not yellow and green."

He quietly asked what color we were in our own country, to which I promptly replied, "Pink and white."

Looking at me steadily for a moment, he remarked: "Mr. Milligan, if I should see you in your own country I don't believe I should know you."

Moral Courage.

A schoolteacher once told her class that the courage which makes us do what we think right, regardless of the sneers of others, was moral courage, the best kind.

"Then if a boy has a box of candy, like me yesterday," said a lad, "and if he eats it all himself, without giving any to people that have no right to it, no matter how much they call him mean and stingy, that there's moral courage, ain't it, teacher?"

The Time Not Rips.

Anxious Patron—Doctor, don't you think you'd better call in some other physicians for consultation? Family Doctor (cheerfully)—Oh, no; not yet. There is still some hope.—New York Weekly.

Endurance Test.

"What do they mean by an endurance test?"

"Two chaps bragging about their respective makes of automobile."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Gallant.

Beautiful Widow—Do you know, I'm forty years old today?"

Gallant Bachelor—Madam, you are twenty. I never believe more than half of what I hear.

Corrected.

Miss Kitty—Before you were married, Mrs. Blunt, did your husband bring you many flowers? Mrs. Blunt—I didn't have any husband before I was married, dear.

SEABREEZE NOTES

The first sight of the vast space where the Clarendon Inn stood is depressing. Not a thing left to tell the tale but scattered debris, and the pavilion, the latter serving as a rendezvous by all board-walkers. Most of the cottages are taken and the crowd is a happy-go-lucky one with "good times" as its motto. Mr. Kockersberger's home under the management of Mr. and Mrs. James Bates, is kept open. Many substantial and pretty homes, both inland and on the beach, have been erected during the winter, cement sidewalks laid and new streets shelled.

The Clarendon pavilion under the management of Mr. Kennedy, was the scene of a very lively dance Wednesday night, and in which many of the Ocala people participated. The Daytona Band furnished the music and the thoroughly congenial and delightful was the crowd that it brought back memories of the eventful summer of '07, when there were fifty-two representatives of Ocala on the board walk. Those from Ocala dancing were Misses Mary Burford, Mattie and Carrie Williams, Annie Atkinson, Josephine Williams of South Carolina, Messrs. Jim Rentz and W. D. Taylor. The others who are familiar with the home folks were Dr. Wm. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Kockersberger, Miss Mildred Randall, Mr. W. W. Wood and Mr. Courtney.

The gaieties of Seabreeze are more varied and numerous than at any time during the summer. Bowling, pool, dancing, skating and bridge parties are found to be in progress at the Clarendon pavilion during all hours of the day and evening. On Tuesday evenings the Colonnade Hotel entertains at dancing and the tennis courts are at the disposal of the public. Thursday and Saturday nights are pleasantly spent dancing at Keating's pavilion.

Friday after a almagundi evening at the pavilion, the following were guests at a spread given by the Misses Williams in the Kissimmee cottage: Misses Mary Burford, Annie Atkinson, Messrs. W. D. Taylor, Jim Rentz, Wiley Burford, Alfred Heath and W. W. Wood. Chicken salad, pickles, wafers, fruit punch, etc., was the menu charmingly served by Messrs. Burford and Rentz.

Friday at twilight the following little folks had a happy time, eating picnic lunch on the beach: Virginia Sistrunk, Agnes Burford, Martha Kate and Louise Rentz, Julia Potter of Gainesville, Sam Burford, Lagrange Sistrunk, Carl and Robert Hall. The supper was given in honor of Virginia Sistrunk, who was enjoying her eleventh birthday.

Mrs. Jack Rentz, who has been the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. P. Rentz, in the Osceola cottage, left this morning for her home at Levon.

Mr. J. B. Heirs of Hobe Sound, spent Tuesday at Seabreeze. Mrs. Heirs, Masters Jack Heirs and Waterman Newsom expect to return in a few days and spend two weeks at the beach.

Miss Mary Burford is the much admired week-end guest at Daytona Beach of Miss Mamie Wilcox. Miss Wilcox is also entertaining Miss Alta Pearson, who is a decided favorite among all the young people.

Master Wiley Burford has been ill from fever, but today he is seen at his happiest pastime, kite flying.

The departure of Mr. W. D. Taylor Tuesday will be regretted by all the young people, both at Seabreeze and Daytona Beach. Mr. Taylor is very fond of fishing and is seen on the pier daily.

Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk made the largest catch on the pier Saturday morning.

Decidedly the largest and merriest dance on the beach this summer was given last evening at Daytona Beach. Ocala was well represented and her girls were particularly noticeable on account of their prominence and popularity. Those from Ocala were: Misses Carrie Williams, Alta Pearson, Virginia Sistrunk, Annie Atkinson, Mary Burford, Mrs. R. S. Hall, Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk, Mrs. O. T. Green, Messrs. W. D. Taylor, Edward Green and Lagrange Sistrunk. Others known to many of the Ocala people were Miss Josephine Williams of South Carolina, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. S. Hall, Miss Mildred Randall and Mrs. Dobbins of Seabreeze, Miss Mamie Wilcox of Gainesville, Messrs. Harry Tompson, R. S. McKenzie, of Jacksonville, Louis Arnold and C. Conova, Capt. Snow, Harry Merriam, all of Palatka, William Roxly, Frank Pope and Roy Barnes.

Mr. R. R. Carroll came up today from the camp at Shell Island. The party is having a great time and catching all the fish they can use. Col. of the party. Mr. Carroll will return H. M. Hampton is the prize fisherman tomorrow morning for a few days more.
